CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

This code of conduct and policy on court behaviour sets out what Team Bath Tennis regards as good practice for all users to follow and is available so that every user is clear as to what is expected of them to create the right playing environment in which everyone can enjoy their tennis.

Both the code of conduct and the policy on court behaviour reflect the friendly and co-operative spirit which customers at the Sports Training Village have enjoyed for many years, as well as guidance from the LTA.

The Code of Conduct sets out minimum standards of behaviour, which all users are expected to follow, and seeks to avoid any serious issues arising. The policy on court behaviour then sits alongside the code of conduct and sets out a range of actions and behaviours which are considered acceptable or unacceptable on and around the tennis court.

Should a breach of the code of conduct or a serious breach of the policy or court behaviour occur, a complaints and sanctions process is set out below. We will follow the DSDR process named: Process for breaches of code of conduct for customers.

Should a continued breach of the code of conduct occur we will follow the DSDR process named: Process for further investigation or continued breaches of code of conduct for customers.

These can be found in the appendix of this document.

This code of conduct and policy on court behaviour comes into effect on 1st January 2023.

Aims of the Code of Conduct

The aims of the code of conduct and policy on court etiquette are to:

- 1. Ensure that all users are treated fairly and with respect.
- Advise all users of the standards of behaviour and court etiquette which they are expected to meet so that an environment is created within which users can enjoy their tennis and the club can continue to flourish.
- 3. Provide a complaints and sanctions process so that any issues can be addressed.

- 2.8 If a player is not in the right frame of mind to work after 5 minutes of a session, they will be asked to leave for 5 minutes and return ready to work.
- 2.9 If a player is late for a session with no communication, the session does not take place (allowances are made for players who have no means of communication, or it is out of their control (younger players reliant on parents)).
- 2.10 If the coach deems there has been a poor physical warm up completed, the entire warm up is to be repeated.
- 2.11 If a player has none of their own rackets, they do not participate in the session.
- 2.12 Poor tournament behaviour = any reports or viewing of: code violations, bad line calling, lack of respect to players, officials, or parents. This will incur a 3-day period of no training to take place.

On Court Behaviour

On court behaviour covers different areas from those addressed within the rules of the game. Up to date ITF rules of the game can be found here.

Etiquette covers a range of actions and behaviours which are considered acceptable on and around the tennis court.

The Team Bath Tennis policy on etiquette covers the following aspects:

1. Showing respect and being courteous

- 1.1 Welcome new users to the venue irrespective of their experience of the game and their level of play.
- 1.2 Show respect and courtesy to your partner, your opponents, and others on or around the courts.
- 1.3 Instead of criticising your partner or opponent, offer encouragement instead.
- 1.4 Do not walk behind courts when a point is in progress to avoid causing a distraction.
- 1.5 During play and particularly between games keep the amount and volume of conversation to a minimum to avoid distracting players on other courts.
- 1.6 If a ball from an adjacent court strays onto yours do not hit it back immediately but do so when the players on that court are ready and then hit it to the server's end of that court.
- 1.7 Courtesy to your opponents should include leaving the court together at the end of the session.

2. Accessing a court whilst others are in use

- 2.1 Before accessing the courts wait for the conclusion of the points currently in play, or if the match is a competitive one wait until the end of game, or until you are invited to cross. Pass behind the courts as quickly as possible to reach your court.
- 2.2 Use the walkway underneath the balcony as opposed to pulling the netting away from the wall on courts 1 and 5.
- 2.3 If you need to pass behind a court in use to reach a free court, wait until there is a suitable break in play.
- 2.4 Be aware if you are already playing on court that others may wish to cross behind your court to access their own court and facilitate that where possible.
- 2.5 If your ball rolls onto an adjacent court, wait for a break in the play in that court before politely requesting its return rather than retrieving it.

3. Line calls

- 3.1 Only call the lines on your side of the net.
- 3.2 Call clearly based on what you honestly believe to be correct.
- 3.3 If you are not certain, or did not see the ball clearly, the ball should be considered good, and the doubt must be given in favour of the opponent.
- 3.4 If occasionally you have serious doubt over a line call, ask your opponent's politely if they are certain as to the accuracy of their call, and if they are, move on and play the next point.

4. Keeping score

- 4.1 The server should announce the score before each point.
- 4.2 If the server forgets or does so inaudibly, the receiver should request the server to make an audible announcement of the score.

5. Mobile phones

- 5.1 Mobile phone calls should not be made or received on court: leave the court to make or receive a call.
- 5.2 Mobile phones taken onto court should be switched off, or put on silent or vibrate mode, to avoid creating a distraction.

6. Clothing and footwear

- 6.1 Players should wear recognised tennis clothing of any colour together with tennis footwear.
- 6.2 Tennis footwear is required both to promote safety as unsuitable footwear can provide insufficient grip, and to prevent damage to the courts.
